ABOUT: UCI ARTISTIC CYCLING WORLD CUP

EVENTS

In 2018, this will be the first time, a UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup takes place. The UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup is a competition series over 4 events:

3 preliminary tournaments and the world cup final.

World Cup Disciplines:

single women, single men, pair women, pair open, artistic cycling team 4.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The eligibility of participation in the first, second and third tournament of the UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup depends on the highest ranking of each nation in the respective discipline at the recent UCI Indoor Cycling World Championships. The National Federations are entitled to register a maximum of riders or teams for the UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup as follows:

Place 1 to 3: three riders / place 4 to 5: two rider / from places 6 on: one rider

WORLD CUP RANKING

For the three PRELIMINARY events world cup points are awarded to each rider, pair or ACT4-team as follows:

place 1: 100 points	place 2: 80 points	place 3: 70 points
place 4: 65 points	place 5: 60 points	place 6: 55 points
place 7: 50 points	place 8: 45 points	place 9: 40 points
place 10: 35 points	place 11: 33 points	place 12: 31 points ...

The best 10 riders of each discipline are qualified for the FINAL. Double points will be awarded in the final. World cup winner: The rider or team who has collected the most world cup points during the four events.

VIEW ON THE WORLD CUP

Adriana Mathis, AUT (World Champion Single Women, 2015)

“This is a good opportunity to spread out artistic cycling in other countries and to inspire athletes and coaches.”

Rolf Halter, GER (Chairman Indoor Cycling World Wide)

“With international events throughout the year, we want to improve the presence of artistic cycling in the media.”
